

FACILITY USAGE

All of Centenary's facilities, such as the library, swimming pool, and classrooms, are available for employee use, provided the general University regulations are followed. During designated times the swimming pool is scheduled for the University Community. For information, please contact Student Life at x2290.